2010 COLLEGIATE

Amazing, Astonishing, Astounding. Think about it, 26 U.S. Collegiate Synchronized Swimming Championships. 26! This awe-inspiring number is what makes synchronized swimming at Ohio State THE Best.

No other sport in the history of intercollegiate athletics at Ohio State can stake a claim to that kind of dominance. Behind the magic have been two extremely influential women in Mary Jo Ruggieri and Linda Lichter-Witter. Ruggieri led the Buckeyes for 19 seasons from 1977-1995 and during that span led the Scarlet and Gray to 17 titles. Lichter-Witter joined the Buckeye family in 1996 and in 15 seasons has coached nine championship teams.

This past season, Ohio State re-created the magic that had previously lifted it to 25 titles. Behind wins in the team, trio and duet routines, the Buckeyes compiled 96 points at the 2010 edition of the championships in the Avery Aquatic Pavilion in Palo Alto, Calif.

"We did great," Lichter-Witter said. "We did really well, but it wasn't easy. We had a lot of support from people who travelled out here for us."

A dedicated fan base that travelled 2,462.12 miles to be exact. Now, that's Buckeye Pride!

About the U.S. Collegiate Synchronized Swimming Championships: More than 200 of the top athletes from the collegiate scene vie for titles in the solo, duet, trio and team events. The championships are an open-class meet, combining competition from NCAA Divisions I, II, and III and NAIA colleges and universities.

2010 NORTH REGIONAL

SIMPLY PUT: DOMINATING

As impressive as the Buckeyes' run at the U.S. Collegiate Synchronized Swimming championships is, their dominance at the North Regional championships is not too shabby either.

In two decades, Ohio State has yet to relinquish its hold on the regional event since its inception in 1990. In other words, 20 years of the North Regional championships equals 20 Ohio State titles.

A tune-up to the U.S. Collegiate championships, the Buckeyes know just when to hit their routines and embark upon perfection. There is no better time than the beginning of the postseason.

It was déjà vu in a good way in 2010. Ohio State swept all four routines for 103 points in Ann Arbor, Mich., Feb. 27-28.

LIFE, DEATH, TEAM!

One may ask, "Where did that phrase come from?" The now famous expression in the Ohio State synchronized swimming lockerroom came from none other than head coach Linda Lichter-Witter. Following the Buckeyes' U.S. Collegiate Synchronized Swimming championship run in 2009, Lichter-Witter said she always knew the title would come down to the team routine and because of that only three things mattered: "Life, Death and TEAM."

PATH TO THE TITLE

Never underestimate the importance of the synchronized swimming regular season. Even though wins and losses don't determine a team's presence in the postseason, no one enjoys losing, especially the Scarlet and Gray.

LINDA LICHTER-WITTER

HEAD COACH | 16TH SEASON | SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT '72

Let's face it, she's in a class all by herself. Simply put, the numbers speak for themselves. In 15 seasons at Ohio State, Lichter-Witter has amassed a 589-21-1 record. In other words, the Buckeyes have won 97 percent of their meets with Lichter-Witter at the helm.

One look at Lichter-Witter's credentials and there is no argument she is Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame worthy:

- 9 U.S. Collegiate Synchronized Swimming Championships, including five straight from 2000-04.
- 11 U.S. Collegiate Synchronized Swimming team routine champions
- 4 U.S. Collegiate Synchronized Swimming solo champions
- 10 U.S. Collegiate Synchronized Swimming duet champions
- 10 U.S. Collegiate Synchronized Swimming trio champions
- 1 U.S. Senior National title (2009)
- 1 U.S. Senior National championships solo champion (Barbara Nesbitt in 2009)
- 1 U.S. Senior National team combo championship (2010)
- Mentored 2008 Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame inductees Carolina and Isabela Moraes (1999-02) to four-straight U.S. Collegiate Synchronized Swimming duet championships.

The duo became the first pair to win the duet competition all four years and teamed with Mary Hofer to place first in the trio event all four years at the championships as well.

- 7-time National Coach of the Year (1996, 1997, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2009)
- 115 Collegiate All-Americans
- 137 Academic All-Big Ten at-large selections
- 14 Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor Finalists; 2 winners in Gina Pietras in 1997 and Victoria Bowen in 2003
- 9 swimmers have earned postgraduate scholarships from either the Leann Grimes Davidge or Corwin A. Fergus Memorial Awards

AND that's not all. Lichter-Witter has been a prominent fixture on the U.S. National Team as well. Most recently she served as the head coach of the 2009 U.S. National Team that competed at the FINA World Championships in Rome during the summer of 2009. Lichter-Witter also was the head coach of the 1996 U.S. National Team I squad.

Lichter-Witter, with son, Eric, and daughter-in-law Annemarie and granddaughter, Ava.

Along with those stints, Lichter-Witter has been an all-too important assistant of various national teams, including the 2004 U.S. Olympic squad that won the bronze medal in the duet and team events in Athens. Prior to that, Lichter-Witter was an assistant at the 2003 and 1978 Pan American games.

HOLLY VARGO-BROWN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | 20TH SEASON | OHIO STATE '84

So what hasn't Holly Vargo-Brown accomplished? With a coffee mug in one hand and a bright smile on her face, she is a renaissance coach, just doing it all. Not only is she one of the most important pieces to the Buckeyes' success over the past 19 seasons, but she is constantly on call, doing all the little things that make any intercollegiate program run smoothly and successfully.

In the summer of 2009, Vargo-Brown was promoted to associate head coach, a sign she is far more valuable to this program than her modesty will ever allow her to admit.

- During two separate coaching stints with the Buckeyes (1986-1990) and (1993-present), has coached 14 U.S. Collegiate National Championships squads.
- In 2004, served as the interim head coach as head coach Linda Lichter-Witter was assisting the U.S. Olympic Team in Athens. During that season, Vargo-Brown led the Buckeyes to their fifth-consecutive Collegiate Synchronized Swimming title
- Named United States Synchronized Swimming Coach of the Year in 2004
- Also served as interim head coach in 2005 when Lichter-Witter went on medical leave
- Led Ohio State to a second-place finish at the collegiate championships in 2005 and mentored five All-Americans

Like Lichter-Witter, Vargo-Brown has been pivotal in United States synchronized swimming. As a competitor, she earned a spot on the U.S. National Team II squad in 1985. As a coach, she led two U.S. Olympic Festival teams in 1987 and 1988. (Vargo-Brown also served as an assistant to the Venezuelan National Team at the 1987 Pan-Am Games)

VARGO-BROWN THE STUDENT-ATHLETE...

A Collegiate and USSSI All-American, Vargo-Brown was a four-time Ohio State Scholar-Athlete and was the recipient of the Melvin and Irving Schottenstein Post-Graduate Award. Talk about the well-rounded student-athlete.

HONORING JESSICA BECK

Ohio State synchronized swimmer Jessica Catherine Beck died suddenly Sept. 15, 2005 from natural causes. Beck, 21, was a native of Richmond, Va., and would have been competing in her final year as a senior for the Buckeyes.

"Jessica was a ray of sunshine in our lives," Linda Lichter-Witter, Ohio State head coach, said. "In her short 21 years, she gave and received more love from her family, boyfriend, teammates and coaches than most people experience in their lifetime."

Beck began her career as a Buckeye in 2003 and made an immediate impact, helping the squad go 33-1 en route to a national championship. During her freshman campaign, Beck and her teammates scored multiple Top 3 finishes, including a first-place finish at the OSU College Association Meet, which later was renamed in her honor, The Jessica Beck Memorial Meet.

In her second year at Ohio State, Beck was a member of a Buckeye 'B' team that placed second at the North Regional championships, third at the OSU College Association Meet and fourth at the Collegiate National championships.

As a junior, Beck was a member of the first-place trio routine at the Maize and Blue Invitational and second-place trio performance at the Walsh Invitational. She played an integral role in helping the OSU 'B' team regain the bronze medal at the U.S. Collegiate National championships with her flawless execution of the vertical team lift.

Beck also excelled in the classroom, garnering Academic All-America accolades for three-consecutive years. Majoring in communication, Beck was a two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree, three-time Ohio State Scholar-Athlete award winner and was named to the Dean's List.

"Jessica's spirit continues to live on in each of us, guiding us daily to do things in the classroom and the pool that would make her proud to be a Buckeye," Holly Vargo-Brown, associate head coach, said. Her gifts of friendship, respect and compassion, which we all feel she gave to us individually, will remain with us forever. We are truly blessed to have known and loved her."

In loving memory and admiration of the many ways she touched the lives of her Ohio State family, the team's pre-meet traditionally closed circle will forever be held open to allow a place for Beck.

Beck is survived by her parents, Joyce and Jeff Beck and her two brothers, Jeffrey and Jonathon. Beck enjoyed shopping and listening to music and had planned to work and live in New York City after graduation.

A memorial fund has been established in honor of Beck. To make contributions to The Jessica Beck Memorial Scholarship Fund, please send to:
